Kennel Name Regulations

- Rule 1. Kennel Names must be renewed after five (5) years, at ten (10) years and fifteen (15) years from the initial date of the Application for Kennel Name, as which point the Kennel Name becomes permanently assigned.
- Rule 2. All owners of said Kennel Name must sign the Application for Kennel Name. Once Kennel Name is accepted and registered with IMASC, no other breeder or owner will be permitted to use said Kennel Name without written permission of the recorded owner(s) of the Kennel Name, unless the Kennel Name registration is permitted to expire before becoming permanently assigned. (See: Rule 1)
- Rule 3. Once the Kennel Name is permanently assigned by IMASC, it belongs to that Kennel Name owner permanently unless the Kennel Name owner transfers it to someone else. If abandoned, it can never be adopted by someone else.
- Rule 4. Dog's names are limited to 30 letters per name including Kennel Name.
- Rule 5. Register only the Kennel Name to be used when naming the dog, i.e., Excellent Aussie Kennel– all three names would have to be used in the name when registering a dog. It is therefore suggested that the words Australian Shepherd, Aussies, Kennels, Farms, etc... be deleted from your Application for Kennel Name. Kennel Name must be used as a prefix or suffix.
- Rule 6. A Kennel Name will only be recognized if it is registered with IMASC.
- Rule 7. A fee will be required to make any deletions, additions, or transfers in ownership of Kennel Name registration.
- Rule 8. An Application for Kennel Name and fee must be submitted to the Registrar whenever an initial registration, renewal, or transfer in ownership is required.
- Rule 9. To transfer a Kennel Name, an Application for Kennel Name must be completed by the New Owner, and signed by BOTH the New Owner(s) and Former Owner(s) of the Kennel Name.
- Rule 10. No AKC/NSDR/ASCA/NAMACUSA/MASCA name may be used unless applicant is the registered owner of that name. Copies of such registrations are required in order to apply for said Kennel Name with IMASC.
- Rule 11. It is requested that applicants refrain from using surnames or colors as Kennel Names.
